

Krueger Center Page Marker (Small Artifact 13)

Artifact

Twenty-four karat gold page marker measuring 1 3/8" x 2" and featuring an image of the Krueger Center's main entrance.

Provenance

Linda Skinner gave this item to the Heritage Room. The grand opening and ribbon cutting for the Krueger Center for Science and Mathematics was held at 10:30 a.m. on May 8, 2014. That evening at 6:00 p.m., a celebration dinner was held for science and mathematics faculty, administrators, Board of Trustees and donors to the Our Promising Future campaign of $10,000 or more. The page markers were favors at each person's place at the tables along with a commemorative booklet describing the Krueger Center and the journey to surpassing the campaign goal.
